Federal and State Aid Options

Some families may need to consider grants, student and parent loans, or student employment in addition to scholarships to help meet the cost of attending the university. It's important to understand how all types of financial aid work and what steps you can take now to plan ahead. We recommend that you complete the FAFSA each year at <https://www.fafsa.gov/> for federal aid eligibility and, if a Mississippi resident, that you also apply for state financial aid at <https://msfinancialaid.org>. Please visit finaid.olemiss.edu to review all options in detail and for a complete list of our scholarships.

Special Programs

Students with outstanding academic and leadership records may wish to apply for admission and scholarships to the Honors College, Croft International Studies, Lott Leadership Institute (Liberal Arts majors only), School of Pharmacy, Chinese Flagship Program, Arabic Flagship Program, the Center for Manufacturing Excellence, and Mississippi Excellence in Teaching Program. Scholarship opportunities may also be available through ROTC (at UM, we offer opportunities through the Army, Air Force, and the Navy/Marines).

Welcome to Ole Miss

A University of Mississippi education is a great investment in your future, and we really want to share with you the many different options to help you pay for your degree. This guide will introduce you to potential scholarships you may qualify for to reduce your tuition! We offer everything from academic merit-based scholarships to need-based scholarships.

One key thing about our scholarships is that some of them have different deadlines. To be considered for any scholarship, you must first apply to Ole Miss, and then submit the online Special Programs & Scholarship Application. Some portions of the scholarship application, such as the special programs portion, should be completed by the priority deadline of January 5th with a final deadline of February 15th. Students must also complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) to be considered for any need-based awards.

We know college is a big family commitment, so if you finish this guide and have any questions, don't hesitate to look through our website at finaid.olemiss.edu, or reach out by email or phone. Your education is our top priority!

HOTTY TODDY!
