Rutherfordton's Dental Implants and Oral Surgery Practice of Choice

We put our patients first. Expect compassionate care from our oral surgeon, Keith Cox, DDS, for all your smile restoration and oral health needs. We offer a full range of oral and maxillofacial treatments and surgeries in a warm and welcoming environment. So whether you need to replace a missing or damaged tooth with dental implants, gently remove your wisdom teeth, or need complex facial or jaw surgery, we're committed to providing the best possible care and service possible.

Specializing in Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery

At our Rutherfordton office, we offer a wide range of oral and facial services to treat issues with the face, neck, jaw, teeth, and head. From simple tooth extractions to advanced reconstructive surgeries, we are here to help. And we are always squarely focused on providing attentive care and personalized treatment experiences.
