Daniel Cook, DDS, MD

Oral & Maxillofacial Surgeon

Like his colleagues, Dr. Daniel R. Cook's credentials are impressive. A second generation dental medical professional, Dr. Cook has bachelor's degrees in biology and chemistry from Baylor University and a doctor of dental surgery degree from Baylor College of Dentistry. He also earned his doctor of medicine from Louisiana State University Health Science Center at New Orleans School of Medicine, and stayed on there for his Oral and Maxillofacial residency.

Dr. Cook is an extremely valuable asset to our practice and enjoys the full scope of oral & maxillofacial surgery with special emphasis on dental implants, TMJ disorders, jaw surgery, and sleep apnea. Dr. Cook has also traveled extensively on medical missions to Nicaragua and India, serving patients without access to surgery for debilitating deformities such as extensive craniofacial cleft lips and palates.
