

Adrian Lineberger, MD

Our head of Anesthesiology, Dr. Adrian Lineberger, is a native of Chapel Hill, NC. Dr. Lineberger trained at Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, where he was a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha Honor Medical Society and was the recipient of the Proctor Pediatric Award.

Dr. Lineberger performed his Pediatric Internship at Yale-New Haven Hospital in Connecticut and his Residency in Anesthesiology at the University of North Carolina Hospital, where he also served as Chief Resident.

After his residency, Dr. Lineberger relocated to Grand Rapids, MI, where he served as Chairman of the Anesthesia Department and Medical Director of Integrated Pain Services at the Spectrum Health Medical System. He was also an Associate Professor at the Michigan State University

Medical School.

Dr. Lineberger holds a degree in Medical Project Management from the Harvard School of Public Health.

Dr. Lineberger oversees and serves all of the CCOFS offices to ensure quality of care and patient safety for all procedures and surgeries.

Education and Residency

- Medical Degree (MD)—Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University
- Anesthesiology Residency—University of North Carolina Memorial Hospital

Certifications

- Board-Certified by the American Board of Anesthesiology (ABA)
- American Society of Anesthesiologists (ASA)
- North Carolina Society of Anesthesiologists